

OPEN SPACE works with artists, writers, musicians, knowledge keepers, and cultural workers to realize exciting and unexpected art projects on Lekwungen territory.

Membership is one of the many ways to participate in and support Open Space. As a registered BC Society, Open Space's institutional body is made up of a Board of Directors, the staff, and the membership. Members are individuals in the community who are interested in participating in the organization by engaging with programming, lending their time and energy to events, and providing feedback to determine the direction of the organization. We are excited to work with the membership to foster community and provide meaningful opportunities to engage in the arts in Victoria.

Benefits of membership:

- Opportunity to interact with artists from all over the world.
 - Participate in the local arts community of Victoria.
 - Learn about the workings of an artist-run centre.
 - Subscription to our monthly e-newsletter.
 - Access to in-house printing.
 - Discounts on merch.
 - Voting privileges at the Annual General Meeting.
 - Contribute feedback on major organizational changes.
 - Eligible to stand for election to the Board of Directors
